Narrative Description

(NOTE: Please provide a 1-2 paragraph description of this Cooperative Extension programming that is focused on “engaging” citizens and/or non-governmental organizations in community based decision-making, about :

- a. public policy or community priorities, and/or
- b. the implementation of a governmental response to an issue of public good/interest.

This short description should explain (1) the issue/policy/program, (2) the audience(s) that participated in this engagement, (3) the programming or techniques used by Extension to enhance citizen and/or non-governmental organization engagement in community based decisions, and (4) why/how Cooperative Extension uniquely influenced the public and/or organization engagement.

(Insert text here)

Please provide short impact-oriented statements about the following:

1. How did Extension programming increase participant numbers and/or participant diversity in this type of community decision-making process?

(Insert text here)

2. How did the programming increase knowledge or skills needed by the target audience to engage in this specific type of community based decision-making?

(Insert text here)

3. What actions did the “engaged” take (e.g., policy creation or modification, the setting of community priorities, implementation of public program, etc.)?

(Insert text here)

4. What (direct or indirect) impacts occurred from this enhanced engagement (e.g., increases in collaborations, leveraged funding, expertise, community satisfaction, etc.)?

(Insert text here)

5. What happened, that would not have otherwise happened, if Cooperative Extension did not provide programming resulting in enhanced public engagement on this issue or public need?
