

NCCEA ANR Program Leader Priorities for 2017

October 5, 2016

Hyatt Regency, Indianapolis, IN

- Developing agent/educator and faculty educational capacity
 - Agent/educator
 - Overall comparison of Extension agent/educator onboarding programs
 - NC ANR Academy 2, cropping systems
 - Farm Margin Workshops
 - NC ANR Academy 3, farm business management
 - Advanced Instructional Methods for Specialists (AIM) program
 - Pilot program by NDSU Extension Service
 - Exploring collaboration with other Extension systems
- Addressing the downturn in the Agriculture economy
 - Multiple states providing in-service training for faculty and staff
 - Multiple states providing training for agriculture sector
 - Multiple states providing information on stress management and counseling services
- Design Your Succession Plan
 - Multiple states providing succession planning programs for faculty and staff
 - Multiple states providing succession planning programs for citizens
- Collaborations with 1890 and 1994 Land Grant institutions within the North Central Region geographical area
 - Invite and encourage 1890 and 1994 Land Grant institutions to participate in NCCEA ANR Program Leaders
 - Invite and encourage 1890 and 1994 Land Grant institutions to collaborate on and participate in NCCEA ANR programming endeavors